CSEIT 2019

Title: Cognitive Neuroscience and Computer Science Education

By: Assoc.Prof.Dr. Chailerd Pichitpornchai

Abstract:

Cognitive neuroscience and its roles are described on how people learn through sensory organs and its circuitry in the brain. Psychology of learning and neurobehavioral science also play an important role on how people learn. This keynote will discuss how the state of the art of current disruptive information technology is integrated for Computer Science Education.